

MEET THE TEAM

Your life has a management team of nine, and they take turns running it. None of them asked you first.

MEET THE TEAM, CONTINUED

Each of them gets a fixed number of years, and it is written in the contract. You never saw the contract.

THE THREE NOBODY WARNED YOU ABOUT

Saturn makes you do the thing, Rahu wants everything, and Ketu takes the toaster. Nineteen, eighteen and seven years, in that order.

HOW THE TURNS WORK

Ketu, Venus, Sun, Moon, Mars, Rahu, Jupiter, Saturn, Mercury, then Ketu again. Nobody knows why, and nobody skips a turn.

mahadasha = season (the manager): the years when one planet runs your life.

SHORT TERMS, LONG TERMS

Venus, Saturn and Rahu take almost half the cycle between them. Sun, Ketu and Mars share one sixth.

WHO GOES FIRST FOR YOU

The Moon's path round the sky has twenty-seven stars. The star she stood in when you were born picks your first manager.

nakshatra = the Moon's star: one of the twenty-seven equal stretches of the Moon's path round the sky.

TWENTY-SEVEN LAMPS, NINE OWNERS

Nine owners, three stars each, in the same fixed order. Whoever owns the Moon's star that night is your first manager.

YOU JOIN A SEASON ALREADY RUNNING

Oh, a baby. Welcome. You joined in the middle of my term. I am not restarting for you.

Thirteen of Venus's twenty years are already spent. The child gets the seven that remain. Then the Sun.

I was two thirds through this star at her birth. Two thirds of Venus's term was already gone.

I was ten minutes old. Nobody waited.

You join a season already running. However much of the Moon's star was left is how much of your first term you get.

ASK YOUR MOTHER TWICE

An hour's error in the birth time shifts every changeover by months. Ask your mother twice, and ask for the hospital record.

KETU TAKES THE KEYS

Ketu runs seven years and builds nothing. Judge him by what you put down, not by what you pick up.

HOW THE KETU SEASON FEELS

Tired for no reason, a house that empties, love without hunger, a desk nobody looks at. Nothing is wrong: Ketu is clearing space.

MONEY AND MIND IN KETU'S SEASON

Money goes flat because wants go flat, and the mind steps back a little. Deep work gets easy while small talk gets impossible.

THE OTHER DEPUTIES IN KETU'S SEASON

Six deputies pass through Ketu's bare flat, and Venus and Rahu get their own pages next. The Sun got no applause.

KETU SEASON, VENUS DEPUTY

Venus and Ketu are friends, so she brings one small, real comfort. Keep the jasmine, but do not try to keep the party.

KETU SEASON, RAHU DEPUTY

Rahu always sits exactly opposite Ketu, so his turn is never hidden, always loud. Sleep on every purchase for a month.

WHEN THE DEPUTY GETS THE STOREROOM

Count rooms from Ketu, not from the front door. A deputy in the 6th, 8th or 12th room still helps, late and sideways.

WHERE KETU SITS IN YOUR CHART

- Ketu owns no sign. He borrows the colour of the sign he sits in, and of any planet beside him.
- Aries, Leo and Sagittarius rising: Ketu is on your side in Leo, Aries, Scorpio, Sagittarius and Pisces. He tests you in Taurus, Libra, Capricorn and Aquarius.
- Gemini and Libra rising: Ketu is on your side in Taurus, Libra, Gemini, Virgo, Capricorn and Aquarius. He tests you in Aries, Scorpio, Leo, Sagittarius and Pisces.
- Example: Scorpio rising, Ketu in Leo. Leo belongs to the Sun, and the Sun is on Scorpio's side, so Ketu is too.

Ketu owns no sign, so he behaves like whoever owns the room he sleeps in. Even a friendly Ketu clears things out.

VENUS TAKES THE KEYS

Venus runs twenty years, the longest season, and the house fills. Your job is to keep your shape inside all that comfort.

HOW THE VENUS SEASON FEELS

A softer body, a fuller flat, love in season, promotion through charm, all pleasant. The bill arrives around year fourteen.

MONEY AND MIND IN VENUS'S SEASON

Money grows and goes, and the mind picks peace over winning. Keep a monthly account from year one, because Saturn will ask for it.

THE OTHER DEPUTIES IN VENUS'S SEASON

Six more deputies in Venus's full house. Rahu and Saturn, the wedding and the bill, get the next two pages.

VENUS SEASON, RAHU DEPUTY

Venus and Rahu are friends, so he makes her bigger: love by unusual routes, often the wedding itself. Check the road, not the destination.

VENUS SEASON, SATURN DEPUTY

Saturn and Venus are natural friends, so he does not end the bloom. He asks what you can actually afford to keep.

THE SUN TAKES THE KEYS

The Sun runs six years, the shortest season. The question on the floor: who are you when nobody is clapping?

HOW THE SUN SEASON FEELS

A warmer body, tired by evening, your father at the centre, love wanting respect. Work is visible: good work gets promoted, poor work exposed.

MONEY AND MIND IN THE SUN SEASON

Money comes through position, not pleasure, and leaves on keeping up appearances. The mind gets clear and proud, and pretence stops working, yours included.

THE OTHER DEPUTIES IN THE SUN SEASON

Six deputies in the King's bright flat. Rahu and Saturn, the eclipse and the audit, get the next two pages.

SUN SEASON, RAHU DEPUTY

Rahu swallows the Sun: the eclipse, when you are tempted to become someone else. Wait for the shadow to pass before signing.
